Key West Barracks,
Key West, Florida,
18 December, 1937.

Dear Mr. Byrne,

Your letter of the 2nd, with the enclosure, finally caught up with me at this far end of the United States.

I am on a vacation and all my cipher books and apparatus for work are at home, but if you want to send me the additional data which you refer to, I will be glad to do what I can with it.

This is a delightful place but there is not much incentive to do anything but loaf, so do not expect to get too much work out of me.

Yours truly,

Parker Hitt
